is exempt from the payment of Florida sales and use tax on real property rented, transient rental property rented, tangible personal property purchased or rented, or services purchased.

Important Information for Exempt Organizations

DR-14
R. 04/11

1. You must provide all vendors and suppliers with an exemption certificate before making tax-exempt purchases. See Rule 12A-1.038, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.).
2. Your Consumer's Certificate of Exemption is to be used solely by your organization for your organization's customary nonprofit activities.
3. Purchases made by an individual on behalf of the organization are taxable, even if the individual will be reimbursed by the organization.
4. This exemption applies only to purchases your organization makes. The sale or lease to others of tangible personal property, sleeping accommodations, or other real property is taxable. Your organization must register, and collect and remit sales and use tax on such taxable transactions. Note: Churches are exempt from this requirement except when they are the lessor of real property (Rule 12A-1.070, F.A.C.).
5. It is a criminal offense to fraudulently present this certificate to evade the payment of sales tax. Under no circumstances should this certificate be used for the personal benefit of any individual. Violators will be liable for payment of the sales tax plus a penalty of 200% of the tax, and may be subject to conviction of a third-degree felony. Any violation will require the revocation of this certificate.
6. If you have questions regarding your exemption certificate, please contact the Exemption Unit of Account Management at 800-352-3671. From the available options, select "Registration of Taxes," then "Registration Information," and finally "Exemption Certificates and Nonprofit Entities." The mailing address is PO Box 6480, Tallahassee, FL 32314-6480.

9:45 am Developing a Total Talent Solution – A Game-Changing Strategy featuring Chris Hart IV, President/CEO, CareerSource Florida

Incentives, infrastructure and land are no longer enough to attract and grow businesses. Sustainable business prosperity and economic growth increasingly hinge on the availability of a skilled workforce – a leading factor in location and expansion decisions.

Demonstrating Florida can provide a total talent solution – an education and talent pipeline that delivers the skilled talent a business needs now as well as in the future – will give communities and regions a growing competitive advantage. Learn how collaboration led to a winning talent solution for Northrop Grumman's game-changing Florida expansion and how economic development professionals can facilitate the creation of meaningful talent solutions to support business attraction, retention and expansion in their communities.

10:45 am Florida Leadership Panel
